And, whereas, it has been made to appear to me that on account of the keen contest between the candidates belonging to rival parties, there is every likelihood of the breach of the peace and public tranquility by crowding of persons at the places of canvassing, etc. and further the crowding of persons not connected with said elections and not entitled to vote at the said elections is likely to cause obstructions, annoyance or injury or risk of obstruction to the persons lawfully entitled to vote and to the candidates and their accredited agents and is likely to cause disturbance of the public tranquility;

And, whereas, I am of opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding under Section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and that immediate prevention and speedy remedy are desirable;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred on me under Section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, I, Shri Y. N. Mahajan, Taluka Magistrate, Hirekerur, do hereby direct the residents, frequenters and visitors in the said Villages not being candidates or their accredited agents or officials employed for conduct of the said elections or bonafide voters intending to exercise their rights to vote at the appointed polling stations, to abstain from loitering or collecting or assembling in groups or bodies of more than five persons on any public thoroughfare, highway, street, lane, by-lane, or road and that no person shall carry, collect, or use stones, missiles, cudgel, knife, or sword, gun or rifle or any other sharp or explosive weapon or lathis at any time during the hours of day and night during the period from 21st November 1956 to 27th November 1956 (both days inclusive).

Order.

No. MAG. SR. Whereas it is reported by the P. S. And whereas as a result of the activities and movements of the members of both the parties, the situation is grave in the village and that groups of 5-6 persons are often found to be sitting in the lanes.
